Corporal Glen A. Lougee of the 3d division, 18th field artillery, left Germany Aug. 5 and sailed from Brest Aug. 12, arriving in Camp Merritt, N. J., Aug. 20. He was discharged at Camp Devens the 29th and arrived in Barre early the morning of the 28th. After calling on his sister, Alice Gaud of Montpelier, and his two brothers, Julian and Verne of Trow hill, he went to Chelsea, in company with his mother, to visit relatives and friends for a few days. He came over on the America, a remodeled German ship. He was in the battles of Champagne, Alsace, Marne, St. Mihiel, Meuse, Argonne and the army of occupation. He was overseas 16 months.

A very enjoyable time was spent on Thursday evening, when a corn roast was given on Batchelder meadow, near Circle street, by neighbors of Mrs. Harry Dale, in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Bazanson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dale, jr., of Boston. Besides roast and boiled corn, a table was set, from which cake and coffee were served. Marshmallows were also toasted, and peanuts and candy were freely dispensed. After the outdoor feast, the party, to the number of about 50, gathered at the home of Nicholas Dale of Green street, where music and dancing were enjoyed and a program was carried out. Among those who took part on the program was Mrs. Bazanson, who sang, "I'll Take You to Your Home, Kathleen," and also responded to an encore. James Hastings sang several songs, there were choruses by the crowd and a few readings. The whole affair was much enjoyed by all present.
